The Case of Danaise vs. De Zeyk.

The charge against Mr. De Zeyk, for obtaining some three hundred dellars from Mr. F. Danaise, which has been entrial before Justice Johnson during the last week, was brought to a conclusion on Friday afternoon. The circumstances of the case, as developed by the testimony, were, that Mr. De Zeyk, on the 27th of Dacember last, obtained from Mr. D. the sum of three hundred dellars, giving him a joint order, signed by himself and wife, on Mr. J. T. Stevens, who is an agent for an estate from which Mr. De Zeyk's wife and daughter draw about seventeen hundred and ninety dellars per year, for the sum of fifty dellars per month, and in which manner the money was to be paid. Mr. Stevens declined to pay the order, which was presented to him a few days after the money was obtained, on the ground that he did not consider Mr. De Z. as having any control of the property, and that at the time there was no money to the credit of the estate. About the time of this transaction another transaction took place between the parties. Mr. De Zeyk gave Mr. Danaise a deed of trust on some property in Webster City, lowa, to secure the payment of $2,500. Mr. De Z. not satisfying the deed at the proper time, the property was sold in this city; but it did not sell for enough to satisfy the claim. Mr. Danaise has since brought suit in the circuit court to recover the deficit. The justice decided that there was no evidence of Mr. De Zeyk's having misrepresented the case, and it Mr. Stevens, the agent, had failed to collect the amount, or from any other cause declined to therefore dismissed the case. The Case of Danaise vs. De Zeyk.

The Excitement in Seventh Street." in the Excitement in Seventh Street."

In our paper of Saturday, allusion was made to the affair between Mrs. Phipps and Mr. Bellew, in a manner somewhat unfair to Mrs. Phipps, our version of the story having been derived from sources unfriendly to her. Mrs. Phipps is a spirited woman, and when she saw her son in danger, a mother's love instantly prompted her to rush to his resoue, for which we commend her. She informs us that Mr. Bellew was arrested and bound over to keep the peace towards her and her sons, for six months.

Had Rebaylor in Oregon Alley.

Had Behavior in Oregon Alley.

Martin Bresnehan, Timothy Kelly, and Edward Barrett, three young gentlemen of rather a jovial disposition, after having been paid off on Saturday night, took it into their heads to bave a right down good frelle; and having secured the medicinal services of a curiously shaped black bottle, which they consulted quite a number of times, they became so exceedingly mirthful as to pitch into several members of the Metropolitan Police who came round into the alley to see what was going on. The officers, not relissing such familiarity, took the "jolly bucks" before the august Justice Thompson, who considering the low state of corporation finances, and the flushed state of the pockets of the trio, very considerately desired them to pay over the sum of $5.94 each, which was done.

To the Elitors of the National Republican: To the Ellitors of the National Republican:
GENTLEMEN: Can you inform one who has the comforts of the soldiers at heart, how it is that there is a lot of clothing now over-due to the Twenty-Saventh Regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers lying stowed away in a shed in the yard of a lager beer saloon, near Willards' Hotel, for the last two months? It is the opinion of the writer that the attention of the Quartermister General should be called to the above facts.

Yours respectfully. QUELY.

Dranken Soldiers.

We noticed, yesterday, quite a number of sol-diers on a spree. The provest guard arrested four cavalrymen in front of the White House restaurant, on E street, between Thirteeuth and Fourteenth attests, and carried them off to the watch-house. Their horses were taken in charge by the guard.

As two officers belonging to Griffin's battery, one of them much intoxicated, were racing up Seventh street on Saturday afternoon, one of them ran afoul of a heavy wagon, the longue of the wegon passing nearly through the neck of the poor horse, causing the blood to flow therefrom in a stream. The result of the cruelty excited the well-merited indignation of the crowd which soon sathered around.

A Dangerone Plaything. A squad of the Fourth Michigan regiment dug up a robel bomb shell near their camp, over the river, on Friday, and while trifling with it in their camp, it suddenly exploded, badly wounding two of the soldiers, one of whom had his head cut open.

The friends of the Thirty-first Pennsylvania volunteers, Col. D. H.
